ASHES STOLEN EXERCISES AT FROM A GRAVE

Causes a Sensation in Raleigh.

GOVERNOR IMPOSED UPON

Orders Every Possible Means to Be Used to Arrest Escaped Convict.

(By Associated Press.)

RALEIGH, N. C., May 26.—A distinct pensation has developed here among a wide circle of friends of the family at the discovery that the grave of Miss Mattle Octtinger, in Oakwood Cemetery, has been opened and her ashes stolen away. The ghouls had cut off the turf and dug down into the inner cell, where the urn was placed. On replacing the roof a mistake was made, so that the earth sifted through, causing a depression on the grave. This and the withered turf led to the discovery.

Miss Octtinger was a daughter of the late Isaac Octtinger, and died in the York about more than a year ago. The remains were cremated and brought here for burlal in the family lot. Every efforthus far has failed to reveal any clue to those guilty of the crime.

Governor Glenn has written Sheriff Alspaugh, of Forsythe county, to use every possible means for the rearrest of R. H. Byrd, who was serving eight months on the Forsythe county roads for assault with deadly weapon in Wilkes county, and set him to serving the whole of his sentence, as he cancelled the pardon granted a day or two ago just as soon as he was informed of his slipping out of the Twin City Hospital, where he was being treated.

The Governor says he feels that he has been Imposed upon in that he was made to believe that Byrd was very ill of necessing that the has been Imposed upon in that he was made to believe that Byrd was very ill of necessity.

The Governor says he feels that he has been Imposed upon in that he was made to believe that Byrd was very ill of pneumonia, and would not be able to do finy more work before his term was up. State Auditor B. F. Dixon is getting out to the banks, banking associations and savings institutions of the State a circular letter, giving directions as to the reports that these institutions must make to the department as soon after June 1st as possible. In addition to the report of the taxable assets of the banks, there must be lists of the stockholders and the number of sharts held by each.

The Auditor is also issuing similar calls to the officers of all the corporations doing business in the State for the purpose of securing the data for levying taxes against them for the year.

tered By Burglars.

(Special to Times-Dispatch.)

EMPORIA, VA., May 26.—The boiler rooms of the box shook department of the Emporia Manufacuring Company's plant in Belfield was practically destroyed by fire at a late hour last night. It seems that the fireman in some way unknown to the management was direlect in handling the boilers which became superheated, thereby setting fire to the wood-work nearby.

superheated, thereby setting fire to the wood-work nearby.

When discovered by the night watchman of the company, the building was in a solid blaze. The fireman as a result of his negligence, like to have lost his life during the conflagration. The loss will amount to hundreds of dollars, of which a portion is covered by insurance.

Sinausky's dry-goods store in Beiffield, was entered by burglars last night and gundry articles of clothing, boots, shoes etc., were carried away. No clue to the perpetrators of the deed so far has been obtained.

Miss Clark was said "in joke," Miss Clark verified the statement made by Miss Jones and said that Miss Donogan was her informant, Miss Clark said in answer to a question by Mr. Pulliam that she considered the remark of Dr. Honderson's a threat Practically the whole day was spent in an endeavor to discover if threats had been made, or if witnesses had been kept from coming forward to testify.

It was an endeavor on one side to show that Dr. Henderson was fighting Dr. Foster and on the other side to show that Miss Jones was helping him.

The affair caused almost as much of an accitement as the grave charges made by J. S. Moore against Judgo Richardson yesterday.

As if Prosecuting. It was decided at the opening of the morning's session that Colonel Lawless would be allowed to control the witnesses he had called and to conduct his "defense" as though the committee were "presecuting," although Chairman Sadier was positive in saying that there was no "presecution."

"hresception."

Mr. 1. 1: Straus, a wholesame dry goods merchant of Richmond, testified that he had never been able to scoure an award in Dr. Moneure's time, but that be had been successful since Dr. Poster assumed charge.

Mr. Biraus related how on one occasion, in Dr. Moneure's time, he had bid for all goods, greatly below cost, and yet had not secured an award.

all goods, greatly below cost, and yet had not secured an award.
Chairman Sadler made a statement at the close of the day's session, that the committee would continue to sit without a break until the invostigation was concluded. He said he hoped to introduce his lest witness by next Wednesday, after which Coloinel Lawless will begin his defense, which he expects will take all of ten days. Senator Sadler will then put on witnesses for rebuttal.

Among the witnesses still to be put on by the committee are Mr. Clowes, Mr. Bonder and Hon. D. C. Richardson.

Concl. Lawless will introduce, besides Dr. Foster, Colonel Walter Taylor, Judge Taylor Gearnett, Mr. Bland, President Tyler of William and Mary College, Rev. Mr. Goodwin, of Bruton Church, and others.

Captain McCracken.

Captain McCracken, of the old board, will be present to testify in his own behalf, and will have as his counsel Mr. St. George Fitzhugh. It is said that this investigation is the most extensive and thorough that has ever been held in the State of Virginia. Certain it is, that the committee is working earneatily and faithfully to secure information that will tend to improve all the hospitals of the State.

The Proceedings.

The sixteenth day's session was called to order at 9:30 o'clock. to order at 9:30 o'clock.

The first witness called was Mr. W. S.

Judge Garnett and Mr. J. T. Bland, former members of the board, asked to be excused for the day. Chairman Sadler said that he intended to put on Judge Garnett and Mr. Bland to-day.
Colonel Lawless said that he had summoned Judge Garnett and Mr. Bland as witnesses for Dr. Foster.
"I think, therefore, that I shall control my own witnesses, and not insist upon putting them on the stand before the 'prosecution' had concluded."
Chairman Sadler said that there was a recital of his experience. He said if he had gotten the contract, he would have lost from $50 to $100, as all his goods were marked below cost.

Mr. Straus retired, and Mr. Brown was recalled.

No operations had been performed since he had had charge.

Dr. Dunn asked if there had been any negligence of duty on the part of the superintendent or the assistant physicians. Witness replied that the patients had received every attention.

Witness retired.

Mrs. Nora Gaines, in charge of the female side of the infirmary, was then called.

Witness said that Dr. Henderson called on his patients twice a day in the infirmary. Dr. Foster came sometimes twice a day and then dropped off for some time.

Witness had never seen Dr. Foster. Dr. Henderson and Dr. Southall visiting patients together.
